WELCOME to the Severn Vale Art Trail 2017, hosted by Thornbury Arts Festival.

We are pleased to offer another opportunity for you to view and buy the work of local artists and makers. The trail presents a wealth of talent including paintings in oil, watercolour and pastel, ceramics and sculpture, prints and drawings, photography, jewellery, textiles and engraved stained glass. Visits to both shared exhibitions and individual artists in unique settings is essential.

Artists' details are in the booklet for future reference. For information about joining the Severn Vale Artists in the next Art Trail please call Jane Parfitt on 01454 613581.

Information and Key

Each artist's studio or shared venue has a number that corresponds to a colour-coded map on pages 21 and 22 of the brochure.

Use this booklet to plan your route. Be sure to visit individual artists in their own surroundings as well as those in shared venues. Look for the red Art Trail signs as you near your destination and remember to check car parking times.

Please take care to check opening times carefully to avoid disappointment.

Mornings are usually 10am - 1.30pm and afternoons 1.30pm - 5pm. The days, mornings and afternoons that each venue is open during April and May are highlighted on the dateline, e.g. the table indicates it is open all day on the 28th April, 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th and 7th May, but only in the afternoon of the 6th. It is closed all day on the 29th and 30th April.

Whilst every care has been taken in compiling this guide, the organisers cannot be held responsible for any errors, variations or omissions. Please note that members of the public visit the venues at their own risk. The organisers cannot be held liable for any loss, damage or injury sustained by any member of the public visiting an Art Trail venue.

Exhibition by Trish Claridge 39

Trish is a local portrait artist, a member of The Society of Women Artists who has exhibited widely, including with The Royal Society of Portrait Painters. The exhibition will include paintings in pastels, egg tempera and large scale portraits in oil, amongst them, a portrait of locally born actress Adjoa Andoh. We are delighted to show these impressive and unique works in The Octagon.

Exhibition will be open from 2nd to 25th May on Tuesdays at 2pm and Thursdays at 4pm, when visitors please need to report first to The Castle School reception. Late opening for all on Thursday 4th May from 4-6.30pm when visitors may come straight to The Octagon. Any further enquiries please contact Andrea Hazlehurst or Heather Johnson on 01454 862113. The Octagon Gallery at The Castle School, Park Road, Thornbury, BS35 1HT.

THORNBURY ARTS FESTIVAL

www.thornburyartsfestival.com
5th - 13th May 2017

Registered Charity No. 1143137
(England and Wales)

The Severn Vale Art Trail comes under the umbrella of Thornbury Arts Festival, which this year runs from May 5-13 and will be opened by former shadow home secretary - and past Strictly Come Dancing contestant - Ann Widdecombe.

Programme highlights include award winning folk singer Cara Dillon, foot-tapping band Stringfever and the Reduced Shakespeare Company with its production of William Shakespeare's Long Lost First Play.

Leading scientist and fertility expert Professor Lord Robert Winston, antiques expert Judith Miller and Thornbury Choral Society also feature, while children will enjoy Squashbox Theatre's The Sea Show.

The work of Bristol Film Office, Dyrham Park's gardens and the Badminton railway line are among topics for lunchtime talks.

Visit www.thornburyartsfestival.com for details.

Showcase Exhibition in Thornbury Town Hall

Friday 5th May – Saturday 13th May
Open daily 10am – 4pm (excluding Sunday)

The exhibition showcases examples of work by individual artists and makers participating in the Art Trail. Their contact details can be found in this booklet.
Work is not for sale at this exhibition.

The exhibition is your chance to see art work by The Severn Valley Quilters which is not part of the Trail.

The exhibition is also your chance to see art work by local children entitled 'The Sea'.
